Dear Parents/Carers,

UNIVERSAL FREE SCHOOL MEALS

The Government have announced that all children in Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 will be entitled to Free School Meals from September 2014. We hope that all families will take up this offer as a healthy free school meal improve children's learning and productivity whilst saving families money in tough times. Our school meals meet strict nutritional standards and the quality and sustainability of our meals is regularly monitored.

We will assume that your child will have free school meals unless you contact us to advise differently.

Children who's family income meets the criteria listed below may attract additional funding for the school to improve the child's learning. Appleby Primary School also often help these families by covering the costs of school trips and activities for which we sometimes need to ask for contributions to go ahead.

If you meet any of the following criteria you may be entitled:-

- Income Support
- Income Based Job Seekers Allowance
- An income related Employment and Support Allowance
