Dear parents/guardians,

As the internet grows to be, ever more, a part of our daily lives, we must be aware of how its positive attributes can come with dangers attached.

On Tuesday the 9th February, the school will be supporting National Internet Safety Day. This event is coordinated in the UK by the UK Safer Internet Centre that sees hundreds of organisations getting involved to help promote the safe, responsible and positive use of digital technology for children and young people.

If you would like help in how you can support your children stay safe on the internet, there are some useful and supportive links below.

Here you will find information on the dangers children face and tips on how you can support them.
