Dear Parents & Carers

World Book Day – 1st March 2018

On World Book Day we are hoping to have a sale of good quality second hand children's book to raise money for Literacy resources in school. If you have any books which you no longer need we would be very grateful if you could bring them to school by Thursday morning for us to sell. The sale will take place at lunchtime and children will need a small amount of money if you would like them to buy any books.

We are also having a 'Design a Book Cover' competition, children will be told about it in assembly tomorrow. They will be asked to design their book cover at home and bring it back to school by Wednesday, judging will then take place and the winners will be announced in assembly on Thursday.

It has been decided not to dress up this year, but we still expect an exciting day in school with the book sale and competition.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.
